@SCOPE

The Croatian Ceramic Society (CroCerS) was the last established national society in the European area, therefore setting the International Conference of the Croatian Ceramic Society was aligned with striving to increase visibility of the international activities related with ceramic materials of the researchers and professionals in Croatia. Established biyearly International ACDC Conference (Advanced Ceramics in Derivative Configurations) proved useful platform to support the proactive segmentation of symposium topics based on correlation of material configurations and functionalities, as shown on 1st ACDC 2023 held in Dubrovnik, Croatia, 26th – 29th April 2023. and 2nd ACDC 2025 held in Šibenik, Croatia, 30th April – 3rd May 2025. It seems that ACDC platform is on the way to merge with CEEC-PCMS platform. This year is going to be an intermediate approaching year, where ACDC will be held as a symposium within the CEEC-PCMS conference.

@INVITATION

The 3rd ACDC 2026 will be held as a symposium within the CEEC-PCMS conference, in Bucharest, Romania, 14th – 17th October 2026.
