Title (Candara 14, BOLD, Centered)

Name and surname (presenting author) [1*], Name and surname [2],…
(Candara 12, Center)

[1]Affiliation 1
[2]Affiliation 2
…
* Corresponding author's email address (Candara 10, Left)

Title and abstract language is English. Abstract should be written with font Candara (font size 11) with single line spacing. If you are citing published papers [1] or books [2], a list of cited papers and books should be provided at the end of the text.
If your text contains formulas, equations, or other non-standard characters, or if you are displaying images, have them fit into the document as sharp and clearly visible parts. The limit for your abstract is one page (including references and pictures) without changing margins or any formatting settings. Abstracts that do not meet these formatting requirements will be returned to the authors.

The document should be named Name_Surname of the presenting author.

Abstracts should be submitted to the symposium organizers at gradic@fkit.hr and nnovosel@irb.hr

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS
Acknowledgments text (Candara 10). Delete the acknowledgments section if not needed.

REFERENCES (Candara 11)
[1] P. Pulay, G. Fogarasi, F. Pang, J. E. Boggs, J. Am. Chem. Soc. 101 (1979) 2550–2260. (example for journal paper citation)
[2] M. J. S. Dewar, The Molecular Orbital Theory of Organic Chemistry, McGraw Hill, New York, 1969, 442–448. (example for book citation)